

Diana Hughes

Diana Hughes is a retired teacher with 36 years of teaching experience in the public schools; a graduate of West Chester University where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree and Masters degree in Elementary Education and Certification in Gifted Education. She has two children and five grandchildren. Her three granddaughters are members of the Children's Museum and visit often during their summer vacations and enjoy participating in our summer camps and special programs. Diana has been an active volunteer at the Museum for nine years. She is currently a member of the Children's Museum Board, chairman of the Docent Committee, member of the Garden and Exhibit Committees and Friends of the Museum. In her spare time, Diana enjoys reading, gardening, traveling, hiking, kayaking, biking and walking. She is a member of the Bloom Fitness Club, a volunteer at Bloomsburg Theater Ensemble, a member of the Nostrum Libri book club and an active fundraiser in her P.E.O. Chapter BK philanthropic group. But her happy place is working at the Children's Museum with its friendly director and staff, excited children, involved parents and amazing volunteers!
