

Daniel Diehl is a Commercial Lender with First Columbia Bank & Trust and joined the Children's Museum board in May 2021. After graduating Lycoming College with a finance degree, Dan held finance positions in manufacturing and healthcare. He grew up in Williamsport, PA and spent his childhood enjoying the outdoors and continues to do so today with his fiancé, as avid runners and cyclists. He is currently working towards becoming a Private Pilot at the Bloomsburg Airport and spent 8 years building a Van's Aircraft RV-7 with his father. Dan is also a member of the Williamsport Regional Area of Pilots (WRAP) and the Bloomsburg Rotary Club.