

Elizabeth Strauss

Elizabeth “Liz” Strauss came to Bloomsburg in 1967. She has participated in a number of local projects: The Migrant Day Care Center; Friends of the Bloomsburg Public Library; and the development of a day care center, the Area Agency on Aging, and the Children’s Museum. Over the years, Liz has served on a number of regional and community councils and boards: the Governor’s Central Regional Council on Aging, the Columbia County Board of Assistance, the Drug and Alcohol Council, and the Children’s Museum.

Career-wise, Liz taught English and History in Ossining, NY; reading in Chappaqua, NY; and was the first director of the Columbia County Area Agency on Aging. She and husband, Jerry Strauss, have a son, Eric, daughter-in-law, Marisa, and two granddaughters, Emma and Hannah. Liz likes to walk, read, play tennis and Bananagrams, and attend movies, plays, and operas.
