

Taryn Crayton joined the Children's Museum board in November of 2022. She lives in Berwick with her Husband Derek and their dog Millie. She is employed by the Columbia Montour Chamber. Taryn also teaches dance for Danceworks by Amber in Bloomsburg and runs her own small dance studio in the Tamaqua area. Taryn is a graduate of the Columbia Montour Chamber of Commerce Foundation's Leadership Central Penn leadership training program and holds a BA in Communications from Eastern University.